

Helping trusted adults guide children through divorce with reassurance and hope.

- ☾ Hardcover Picture Book
- ☾ Ages 5–8
- ☾ Available through juniquemckay.com and major retailers

ABOUT THE BOOK

Love Is Like the Moon gently reassures children experiencing divorce or separation that love can remain constant, even when family circumstances change. Through the relationship between a little boy named Vincent and his grandmother, the story offers comfort, security, and hope during a difficult season.

WHY PROFESSIONALS VALUE THIS BOOK

- ☾ Encourages emotionally safe conversations.
- ☾ Supports children in expressing difficult feelings.
- ☾ Reinforces children's sense of security and connection.
- ☾ Offers hopeful language around divorce and family change.
- ☾ Equips trusted adults to talk about difficult emotions.
- ☾ Complements therapeutic conversations and family discussions.

WAYS TO USE THIS BOOK

- ☾ Recommend it to parents navigating divorce or separation.
- ☾ Read it together during counseling or family sessions.
- ☾ Share it with grandparents and other trusted caregivers.
- ☾ Include it in school counseling and family resource libraries.
- ☾ Use it as a gentle conversation starter about love, loss, and change.

IDEAL FOR

- ☾ Therapists and Counselors
- ☾ School counselors
- ☾ Social workers
- ☾ Family support organizations
- ☾ Play therapists
- ☾ Divorce professionals

ABOUT JUNIQUE

Junique McKay is a psychotherapist, registered nurse, grandmother, podcast host, and author whose work centers on helping people navigate life's most challenging transitions with compassion and honesty. Drawing on decades of clinical experience and personal insight, she brings warmth, wisdom, and practical guidance to conversations about family, healing, and human connection. Learn more at: www.juniquemckay.com

PROFESSIONAL PRAISE

"Junique McKay's lovely book is invaluable to a young child who is trying to understand feelings that arise in him in the midst of his parents' divorce . . . with complex and beautifully rendered illustrations that are sensitive enough for a young child to fully appreciate."

—Ronnie Brenner, retired LCSW, BCD